Civil Action No. 4:24-cv-0862-P

FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

On September 10, 2024, pro se Plaintiff Tawaiin Rashad McDonald filed a civil complaint, and this case was referred to the undersigned for judicial screening pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Special Order 3. See ECF Nos. 1, 4.

The findings, conclusions and recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge are as follows:

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS:

A. NATURE OF THE CASE

This case is a new civil action.

B. PARTIES

Tawaiin Rashad McDonald is the plaintiff. Although it is unclear from the complaint, Plaintiff appears to name Unicourt as the sole defendant.

C. LEGAL ANALYSIS

To proceed with a civil action in this Court, a plaintiff must either pay the $405 filing and administrative fees or be granted permission to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP). See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1914, 1915. When Plaintiff filed his complaint, he did not pay the requisite fees or file an IFP application. On September 13, 2024, the Court ordered Plaintiff to, within 30 days, cure the preliminary filing deficiency by either paying $405 to the Clerk of Court or filing a completed long-form IFP application. See ECF No. 6. The Court mailed Plaintiff a copy of the IFP application form necessary to comply. In addition, the Court explicitly warned Plaintiff that failure to timely comply with its order may result in dismissal of this case without further notice under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b). Id.

Rule 41(b) permits a court to dismiss an action sua sponte for failure to prosecute or follow orders of the court. McCullough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126, 1127 (5th Cir. 1988). This authority flows from a court's inherent power to control its docket, prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases, and avoid congested court calendars. Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 629-31 (1962). The deadline for Plaintiff to comply with the Court's September 13 order lapsed on October 15. To date, Plaintiff has not complied with the Court's order or otherwise attempted to cure his filing deficiency. Because Plaintiff has not paid the requisite fees or filed an IFP application, this case is subject to dismissal for failure to comply with a Court order and for lack of prosecution under Rule 41(b).

RECOMMENDATION

It is therefore RECOMMENDED that Plaintiff's complaint be DISMISSED for lack of prosecution, without prejudice to being refiled. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO OBJECT TO PROPOSED FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION AND CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO OBJECT

A copy of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), each party to this action has the right to serve and file specific written objections in the United States District Court to the United States

Magistrate Judge's proposed findings, conclusions, and recommendation within fourteen (14) days after the party has been served with a copy of this document. The United States District Judge need only make a de novo determination of those portions of the United States Magistrate Judge's proposed findings, conclusions, and recommendation to which specific objection is timely made. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Failure to file by the date stated above a specific written objection to a proposed factual finding or legal conclusion will bar a party, except upon grounds of plain error or manifest injustice, from attacking on appeal any such proposed factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the United States District Judge. See Douglass v. United Servs. Auto Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1428–29 (5th Cir. 1996) (en banc), superseded by statute 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) (extending the deadline to file objections from ten to fourteen days).

It is further ORDERED that the above-styled and numbered action, previously referred to the undersigned for findings, conclusions, and recommendation, be and is hereby, RETURNED to the docket of the United States District Judge.

SIGNED October 16, 2024.

JEFFREY L. CURETON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
